Good News Reflection*Don't worry, be fearless

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus speaks to us about our anxieties and worries. They distract us. They're harmful to us if we let them control our lives, because they take our eyes off of our Lord and focus us on what's going wrong and how it might get worse.

Mary chose the "better part"; she didn't let anything distract her from being a disciple learning avidly from Jesus. When we make the time to put aside the busyness of life to sit quietly and learn from Jesus, we discover reasons why our worries aren't really so worrisome.

Only as we sit quietly at the feet of Jesus do we find hope that overcomes despair, peace that conquers anxiety, and wisdom that gets us through trials. Even the littlest worry, such as Martha's concern that her kitchen chores wouldn't get done, is a sin when it takes our eyes off of Jesus. Nothing that distracts us from Jesus is ever good for us.

We cannot grow in holiness when we're not watching Jesus and learning from him how to be holy. We cannot love as he loves nor receive all the love he gives us unless we have a prayer life that includes quiet time alone with him, drinking up his lessons and his loving embrace. Prayers said while driving and while listening to homilies isn't enough.

Anxieties and worries are varying degrees of fear: We're afraid that something bad is going to happen. Even when there's a legitimate reason to worry, fear blocks our view of Jesus, because it turns us away from him. We need to recognize fear as a warning flag telling us to slow down, quiet down, and sit down with Jesus for a good discussion on whatever it is that's bothering us. He's got the answers, the encouragement, and the affirmation that will bring us peace.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

What has been worrying you lately? What are you anxious about? What are you fearing might happen? Write them on a list and take them to Jesus in a quiet prayer time. What lessons is Jesus trying to teach you in those situations? Ask the Holy Spirit to help you learn from Jesus. Search the Bible for additional inspiration.

Questions for Family & Community Faith Sharing:

What are some of the ways we can slow down our lives and improve our prayer times? Tell the story of an experience you had when quiet prayer relieved an anxiety or solved a problem

Parking Lot Repair

We are now near the final part of the project where portions of the parking lot will be closed as we churn up the asphalt and repave the surface. This will alter the traffic pattern for a brief period of time. Your patience is appreciated.

Call to Prayer

For several weeks we asked for your assistance by sponsoring our teens and leaders that are going to the Steubenville NYC Youth Conference held at St. John's University, Queens, on July 19-21, 2019. The support we got was truly amazing, and we Thank You! Because of the generosity of the parishioners and sponsors, twenty-four teens and six adults are able to participate.

As we participate in this amazing experience this weekend, we ask you to support us, teens and leaders, by responding to "Call to prayer". This is an amazing way for all of us to be involved and connected to the conference and to help our teens and the leaders to experience the power of the Holy Spirit in their lives through our prayers.

Please keep the prayers flowing!

Dear Lord, give the teens and leaders the grace to experience Your presence at Steubenville NYC Youth Conference, and the strength to continue to choose You when they return home. I pray that let them allow the Holy Spirit to open their heart to God's healing power in their life. May Jesus, the Lord, free them from sin, fill their hearts with joy, bless them, guide them, and give them His abundant life. Amen
