The Baptism of the Lord

Is 42:1-4, 6-7 | Acts 10:34-38 | Mt 3:13-17

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

We hear in today's Gospel that at the moment of Jesus' baptism, "a voice came from the heavens, saying, 'This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.'" We can hear these words as a simple proclamation of who Jesus is — the beloved Son of God — but also as a proclamation of who we are called to be: the beloved adopted sons and daughters of God. I sometimes forget that I am also called beloved. I mistakenly think that my value depends on my accomplishments or on my faithfulness, but the truth is that my status as beloved is due to being made in the image of my Creator. If I allow myself to absorb the full meaning of that, it will not only affect how I view myself but also how I relate to others. But Christ didn't come only to show us the truth about who we are. His coming also invites us to see one another as beloved. As Peter reminds us in our second reading, "God shows no partiality." May we strive to see the belovedness that God bestows on us and on all people.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Jesus entered fully into our humanity, including entering into communion with each of us through our common baptism, to allow for us to one day share in the perfect exchange of love of the Trinity. Our call is to take on Christ's mission of love here on earth — to speak and act in a way that proclaims the truth of who God is and who he has made us to be. How can we remind our families, our neighbors, and even our enemies of their nature as beloved children of God? And by recognizing our own nature as beloved, we allow God's grace to flow through us. We then trust that God will make himself known as the source of love itself.

REFLECT

Take time this week to reflect on what it means to be a beloved son or daughter of God. What would it be like to hear, "You are my beloved child, with whom I am well pleased"? Once we root ourselves in this truth we can ask ourselves, "What act of kindness, what consoling word might I offer, what goodness might I do for others around me to help them experience a glimpse of their own belovedness?" Then, do it!

Simplify

Decluttering our lives to focus on what's important,
to build better relationships and to connect with God.

WEEK TWO – Your Soul

This discussion continues the focus on simplifying life by exploring what it means to declutter the soul. It explains that just as physical spaces can become disorganized, the soul can also lose order when it drifts from God's will. Drawing from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians, it shows that an ordered soul seeks holiness and peace by aligning with God's purpose. The conversation emphasizes daily silence and prayer through adoration, contrition, thanksgiving, and supplication as ways to clear spiritual clutter and draw nearer to God.

Discussion Questions:

1. What thoughts come to mind when you think of your soul? How do you define it?
2. A well-ordered, decluttered soul integrated our being with God's will. What are your thoughts on that statement?
3. Paul had confidence that he had been called to be an apostle by God's will (1 Corinthians 1:1). In what areas of your life are you confident you are aligned with God's will for you? Where are you still determining?
4. Do you have a daily time for prayer and silence before God to examine your day? If so, how is it going? If not, when and where could you carve out time for it?
5. Over the last 24 hours, what experiences or moments can you praise or thank God?

In today's digital age, it's essential to embrace technology that supports our mission of Christ while enhancing our operations, engagement, and offertory. ## The 3 Most Important Questions

Questions are powerful tools for growth and understanding. The right questions can help us avoid failures and foster success, boosting our confidence. Among the many questions we can ask, three are particularly important. In our discussion, we will explore these key questions and seek their answers.

We are pleased to welcome Tom Corcoran from the Church of the Nativity, Timonium, MD, to Assumption Parish Family as the presenter and lead us in this discussion.

Saturday, January 31, 2026

9 am to 12 noon

(Lite Breakfast will be served at 9:00 am)

Assumption Parish Center Hall

33 Crown Acres Rd, Centereach, NY

Tom Corcoran is a best-selling and award-winning author. He has co-authored seven books, including Rebuilt, Churchmoney, Seriously, God, and Rebuilt Faith.

With 28 years of experience in parish ministry, Tom has served in a variety of roles, providing him with a unique perspective on ministry and leadership. In addition to his work at Nativity, he is the president of the Rebuilt Parish Organization, a movement dedicated to renewing parishes by equipping leaders with the tools needed to reach the unchurched, create a clear discipleship path, and revitalize parish culture. Over the past decade, he has done presentations on parish renewal both nationally and internationally.
