Good News ReflectionWell done, my good and faithful servant!

This Sunday's Gospel reading reminds us not to bury the gifts that God has given us. To do so is to be a "wicked, lazy servant!"

Ouch.

We all have at least one buried talent. There's more we could be doing for the kingdom of God, but we think: "Not me. I'm not gifted enough" or "Someone else can do it better than I can" or "God can't be telling me to do that" or "I don't have the time, the financial resources, the know-how, or good enough health" or "I'm retired now and I've been waiting a long time to finally focus on my own desires."

There's no holy excuse for wasting anything good that God has given us, but sadly it happens quite often, because we don't realize how necessary our talents are for the Church and our joint mission of spreading Christ's influence upon the world.

What's pushing your gifts and talents aside? What's interfering with your usefulness to the kingdom of God? Now is the time to open wide your potential and release your talents into God's plans!

We are all gifted "enough" to make a difference for God's kingdom, because our abilities come from him. We're his servants, and it's up to him, not us, to decide what we're capable of doing. Even the homebound and the bedridden have a divine purpose that can be accomplished in their circumstances and sufferings. Often, these precious people are very powerful prayer warriors and have some of the soundest wisdom on earth.

Have you ever been challenged by the question: "If God is so good, why does he allow evil to happen?" The answer is: It's not God that allows it. It's we who allow it! We are the Body of Christ on earth. We are his hands and feet and vocal chords and embracing arms. Jesus truly wants to make our world more heavenly, but too many of us have seemingly good reasons to bury the gifts that could make a difference. Indeed, this is wicked laziness!

Questions for Personal Reflection:

What good have you done? Hear God assuring you: "Well done, my good and faithful servant! Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you greater responsibilities. Come, share your Master's joy!" What "greater responsibilities" can you say yes to by offering the gifts that he's provided to you? What's stopping you from saying yes?

Questions for Community Faith Sharing:

How would you recommend, based on your own experiences, that Christians invest the gifts of God? How do you identify (1) your giftedness and (2) God's purpose for it?

The Catholic Ministries Appeal is an Island-wide effort by our Church to support the critically important services and programs that serve more than 600,000 people every year. 100% of every dollar raised is RESTRICTED to the ministries of the Appeal.

To each of you who have already made a gift, please know that I am very grateful. I also want you to know that I believe so deeply in this program that I also contribute every year. I hope that those of you who have not yet had an opportunity to do so will seriously consider using the envelope that is included in your monthly packets next week, and include with the regular collection.

Through the Catholic Ministries Appeal, we can provide pastoral care to those in need on Long Island. This year our parish goal is $56,200 and $50,807.00 is pledged. We are short of $5,393.00 of our goal. parishes who make their goal receive a rebate from the diocese, amounting to 20% of the actual goal. 90.6% of our goal is pledged so far.

If you have not already contributed, please prayerfully consider joining with me as One Faith, Family and Community, and make a gift to the 2020 Catholic Ministries Appeal. Please remember no gift is too small, and all gifts make a difference in someone's life!

Financial Report: September 2019 through August 2020

It's been quite a year with everything being topsy-turvy due to the pandemic that has plagued the entire world. Nevertheless, pandemic or no pandemic, I am responsible to making sure that the parish remains up to date as to our financial situation. What follows, therefore, is our parish's financial report from our last budget year. Rather than give a list of incomprehensible numbers, I've divided income/expenses into recognizable categories, e.g., Sunday collections, program fees, parish offices, etc. Hopefully this gives a clearer idea of where the money comes from and where it went. Note that such items as utilities, salaries, etc. have been divided proportionately into several categories, e.g., Parish Office, Faith Formation, Church, so that these items could be distributed to all areas depending upon a percentage of the total activity. For those interested in the exact amount of items,

I've listed a couple of our annual bills so you get a sense of how much must be spent just to keep the doors opened: gas, $14,385; electric, $23,900; water, $5,374; insurance, $65,750; garbage removal, $3,654; grounds, $17,835.

The goal, of course, is to have our operating expenses covered by our regular income without using our savings or interest to cover operating expenses. Operating expenses are just what the term indicates, i.e., what it costs to operate our day-to-day programs. Capital or extraordinary expenses—e.g., redoing the parking lot—are one-time costs covered by taking money from savings or having a capital campaign. They are not part of the operating expenses. As you can see from the Income/Expense chart, we had a deficit in terms of our operating budget. This was due, in part, to a continuing decrease in our parish's overall income, both collections and program fees as well as an overall increase in prices, insurance, etc. The ongoing pandemic which has plagued us since March played a large part in this decrease of income. Nevertheless, I would be remiss if I did not make it clear that using our savings to cover an operating deficit cannot be the accepted practice if we are to continue as a functioning parish entity.

That being said, our parish has done fairly well in light of the COVID outbreak which has hampered our ability to gather since March. Our income loss from the pandemic was substantial, e.g., no Easter collection other than what was mailed in to the parish. In addition, we had unexpected expenses as we tried to keep the parish together through live-streaming the masses (this required additional equipment and licenses) as well as the additional costs of cleaning the building repeatedly between masses and classes.

For the parish to thrive we have to raise the level of sacrificial giving. Thankfully, our online giving has increased over the past year. That being said, our growth and well-being as a parish cannot be maintained unless everyone who considers himself/herself a parishioner generously offers his/her sacrificial financial support even if he/she is unable to attend mass. (A special thank-you to the parishioners who though still unable to come to Sunday mass faithfully send in their envelopes to help support the parish.) If our parish is going to achieve a positive financial trajectory we have to be realistic in terms of parish support. One way of improving and stabilizing our financial situation would be for more families to participate in Faith Direct, our parish's eGiving program. This easy-to-use service allows families to have their parish offering deducted automatically from their account or charged to their credit card. It's a great way to "take a step" toward a stewardship way of life, which is one of the characteristics of discipleship. I myself use this for our weekly parish offering. You can get additional information by going to www.FaithDirect.net/NY563.

Finally, this past year we entered the fourth and final year of our parish's Capital Campaign. A successful campaign will eliminate the deficit that came from major repairs which had to be done, e.g., the parking lot. Many thanks to the 372 families/individuals who have made a pledge and/or one-time gift. Thus far we have $805,808 in pledges and have received $760,366 in paid pledges. This has allowed us to accomplish all the projects we anticipated, e.g., refurbishment of the church interior, a new roof, church AV system, repair outside windows and a new parking lot. To do this, we did have to dip into our savings. Fulfillment of your pledge, therefore, will replenish our small savings account which we need to maintain in case other unexpected and/or extraordinary repairs become necessary.

Together we rely on God's abundance. I personally remain convinced that the Lord has much more prepared for us than we are receiving. We cannot receive these additional gifts, however, without consciously moving in the direction of putting every part of our life under the Lordship of Jesus Christ. For that reason, our ongoing stewardship efforts will continue to help us appropriate all that the Lord wishes to offer. In the meantime, the Income/Expense chart gives us an idea of where we've been over the past fiscal year. If anyone wishes further information or explanation, do not hesitate to contact me at the rectory to set up an appointment.
